CANDIDATES ARE REQUIRED TO SUCCESSFULLY COMPLETE THE COMPREHENSIVE PAPER TO BE ELIGIBLE TO GRADUATE		33 TOTAL DEGREE CREDIT HOURS

* The candidate takes either EDU 624 or REA 511. Only one of the two courses is required for the degree depending on the grade level the candidate seeks to be certified to teach.

* The Belhaven University School of Education will NOT provide school districts or individuals with letters for the Special Non-Renewable License stating Unconditional Acceptance of candidates enrolled in the MAT/Non-Licensure degree program. The MAT/Non-Licensure degree does not qualify a candidate for an educator license, certification or endorsement within any state of residence or state where the candidate may seek employment.

* The Master of Arts in Teaching – Non-Licensure degree program does not require the two Mentor/Internship courses as found in the MAT – ALT/CERT program. Courses that replace the two Mentor/Internship courses: TEACHER RESIDENCY I & II required in the MAT-ALT/CERT-LICENSURE degree program.

If a candidate has taken and passed the MDE required tests for admission to the MAT-Alt/Cert program, they may request a degree change in order to be eligible for the MS Alternate Route Teacher Certificate.
