Methodology

The Institution formed a CARES Committee to develop a method for distribution and allocation of the CARES Grants to students. In accordance with guidance issued by the Department of Education, the committee determined that only students studying in an on ground program were eligible for the CARES funds. In an effort to reach the greatest number of students and make the greatest impact to meet their specific needs, an application process was created and posted to the student portal, Blazenet.

Communication to Students

The Institution has communicated guidance to students concerning the CARES Grant in a number of ways. Our website includes Frequently Asked Questions that address the availability of these funds, who is eligible and the type of expenses that can be covered. In addition, we communicated to all students the following language:

Belhaven has received $1.1 million in funding to help students who demonstrate financial needs related only to the specific hardships in moving to a virtual format after March 20th including technology costs, course materials, housing, etc., or students who have a significant loss of personal or family income due to the pandemic. The Federal government stipulates that the funds are only awarded for these purposes. Belhaven will make these funds available over the coming 12 months, and there is not an approaching deadline for requesting assistance. There is not a specific grant amount available for every student. It is important to note that only students who have completed the FAFSA and received Federal Aid this spring are eligible for CARES funding - and demonstrate need based on the above Federal government restrictions.

Over the coming year we will award the entirety of these funds to those with greatest hardship caused by the virus. You should visit with your financial aid advisor in the coming months if you believe you may be eligible for CARES funding.
